Call to Worship

This land is your land.

This land is my land.

This land is God's land!

From east to west, from north to south, from ocean to ocean,

We gather to worship as people have in this land

Since before Canada was a nation, since before the settlers arrived.

And as we come to worship in this place, God already was, already is,
Already here!

Opening Prayer

We turn to you for healing, O God; bless us this day. Give us the strength to fall on our knees and lay our petitions at your feet as we worship you this day. Grant us the courage to reach out our hands and touch the hem of your robe, that we may be made well. May your power flow into our bodies and soothe our minds and spirits, as we place our faith in you, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hymn VU#326 – O for a Thousand Tongues to Sing

Prayer of Confession

As proud as we are of our country, Lord of all, we know it could be better. We know we could be better. We know that there could be reconciliation with the Indigenous peoples of Canada and better relationships among those of all faiths. We need your compassion in our communities and in our country. We need your imagination, your vision of a country and a world transformed. Instead we have made idols for ourselves of culture, race, status, and material wealth. We have made gods that are no gods.

Forgive us, Spirit of justice and true peace. Reconcile, restore, redeem us, Merciful One. Turn us to the face of Christ and give us your grace, we pray. Amen.

(Written by Robin Wardlaw. Gathering, Pentecost 1 2018, page 32. Used with permission.)

(time for silent confession)

Words of Forgiveness

Place your hope in God, our source of Life. For God is the Great Physician, whose steadfast love has the power to redeem. Give thanks to the One who hears our prayers and makes us well.

Thanks be to God. Amen.

WE RESPOND TO THE WORD OF GOD

Presentation of the Offering

Offertory *What can I do? What can I bring?
What can I say? What can I sing?
I'll sing with joy. I'll say a prayer.
I'll bring my love. I'll do my share.*

Offertory prayer

God of love and mercy, our world is filled with misery and despair. From our bounty, receive these gifts in your service, that those with less may not suffer from want.

And when our fortunes are reversed, may we receive with the same grace and gratitude that we have offered our gifts this day. In your holy name. Amen
